IBM MBA & Executive MBA Programs

IBM intends to offer various management programs in phased manner. In its first phase, the institution launched its Executive MBA (EMBA) Program in May 2009 tailored for mid-career working professionals, who sought to obtain an HEC accredited MBA degree while maintaining their full-time job and social responsibilities.

In its second phase, IBM is launching a Masters in Business Administration (MBA) for fresh graduates and professionals who aim to gain a world class degree in business education. Scheduled to commence from August, 31st 2009 at UET main campus Lahore, where classes will be held in the mornings (8:30 am to 5:00 pm), this program offers a thorough grounding in accounting, economics, finance, marketing, operations management, organizational behavior, Quality & Project Manager, applied statistics, and strategy. As a part of the on going EMBA program, admissions to the Second Batch of EMBA Program are also underway where classes will be held in the evenings (6:00 pm to 9:00 pm).
